

Generation boundary. No inverse-flow call precedes the decoder. Default generation uses class-conditioned predictions without extra classifier-free-guidance mixing.

Evidence boundary. The diagram follows the archived root `diffusion.py` and its VAE implementation. It does not establish which source version, data split, or weights produced the historical results; biological class validity remains unverified.